Step 4: collect your Residency Permit card

If the application is complete and approved, you have to check the status here: http://questure.poliziadistato.it/stranieri/

Your Permesso should be ready to be collected approximately one month after the appointment. If you do not receive any message from the police, come to our office to check the status of your application.

Step 5: Send a copy of your PSE

Submit a copy of your permesso di soggiorno to Università Cattolica:

- ✓ Students enrolled in a Bachelor or a Master of Science course:
 - @ Polo Studenti uff.segreteria-cr@unicatt.it
- ✓ Students enrolled in an international programme:
 @ Cattolica International ucsc.international-pc@unicatt.it

About the Residency Permit

- The duration of your Residency Permit cannot be longer than the duration of your Visa.
- You cannot apply for a Residency Permit for longer than 1 Year (Type D or Study). It means that, if you are staying in Italy more than 1 year, you will have to renew it at least once.
