Federico Fellini and Contemporary Italian Cinema

PROF. MARA PERBELLINI

Area of study:	Media and Communications
Area Code:	FS/CM310
Method of Instruction:	In-person

Description

The course will introduce students to the magic world of the “director superstar” Federico Fellini, who influenced the art of cinema all over the world. Here’s a quotation from American director David Lynch, to give an example of how influential Fellini was to international directors: “If I had to choose films that represent, for me, examples of perfect filmmaking, the first would be 8 ½, for the way Federico Fellini managed to accomplish with film what mostly abstract painters do –namely, to communicate an emotion without ever saying anything in a direct manner, without ever explaining anything, just by a sort of sheer magic”. After “meeting” the Master, students will discover the main trends and filmmakers in contemporary Italian cinema. Since cinema is a mirror to our world, students will learn a lot about contemporary Italian society through the seventh art.

Course contents

In the first part of the course, after an introduction on cinema language and Italian cinema, we will focus on Federico Fellini’s career, from his debut as screenwriter during Neorealism to the masterpieces of the ‘50s and ‘60s. We will then explore the boundaries of contemporary Italian cinema with the most significant directors and their movies: Roberto Benigni, Gabriele Salvatores, Nanni Moretti, Matteo Garrone and Paolo Sorrentino (who won for best picture in a foreign language at the Academy Awards 2014)

Prerequisites

None

Method of instruction

Screenings of clips from films, Lecture and film analysis, weekly discussion of films to be watched before class. Each week, starting from week 3, a couple of students will lead the film discussion together with the Professor (students will rotate in this role).

Course requirements

Each week students will watch a film that will be screened at Università Cattolica more than once, in days and hours to be scheduled. The following week the film will be discussed in class with the Professor. It is crucial that students watch the film prior to discussion in class. There will be a total of 9 mandatory films. Students will be asked to watch 1 other optional film for final exam: 1 by Fellini or 1 by 1 of the contemporary directors presented in class (a list of optional films will be provided during the first week). Each student will analyze and present in class an optional film (chosen by the Professor). The student will choose if the film will be by Fellini or a contemporary filmmaker.
