International Curriculum policies

Attendance

Attendance to International Curriculum courses is mandatory and class attendance will be taken by the professor during the class. For classes that meet twice a week the maximum number of unexcused absences is five, while for classes that meet once a week the maximum number of unexcused absences is two. If you exceed the number of unexcused absences permitted, the professor, in accordance with Cattolica regulations, may decide to penalise these unjustified absences by reducing your final grade. In the event of sustained unjustified absences that exceed the minimum 5 (or 2) allowed, professors may decide to assign you a Fail. In all cases of absence, you are expected to notify the professor at least two hours before the beginning of class. All email addresses of International Curriculum professors are at the bottom of the course outlines found on this page. Attendance and participation make up a percentage of the final grade for each course, so if you exceed the accepted number of absences for a course, the grade assigned to your attendance and participation will be impacted and will affect your overall course grade.

An excused absence is noted in cases of reasons related to Permit of Stay appointments, or in the case of sickness. In both instances, students must provide evidence that justifies the excused absence, such as copy of the Permit of Stay appointment receipt, or a doctor's note, to your professor. In the case a student tests positive for COVID-19, the student should send, as above, a picture of an official certificate, which can easily be obtained by getting tested at a pharmacy. Excused, sick students may have access to recorded lectures if they inform the professor in advance of their absence and request that the lesson is recorded. An unexcused absence is noted if you miss class and you do not provide a medical note/ Permit of Stay appointment receipt. It is expected that you inform your professor that you will be absent as soon as you can, even if you do not have a medical excuse. Please note that you are not expected to utilize the maximum number of unexcused absences if you do not need to. Your absence from class, not only puts you at a disadvantage, but also affects the learning of your classmates.

Add/ Drop and Withdrawal

Students may add or drop a course within the first two weeks of the course with no repercussions. After the Add/ Drop deadline, no adds or drops will be accepted. The courses in students' study plans after the Add/ Drop deadline are the courses that will show on their final transcript.

To withdraw means to officially leave a course after the add/drop deadline. The course will show on the Transcript of Records with a W (worth 0 credits) and should not affect your average. Students may withdraw from a course after midterm exams during the 'Withdrawal period'. No withdrawals will be accepted after the withdrawal deadline. Students who have not formally withdrawn from a course by submitting the Withdrawal Form will be expected to take the final exam. In the case of absence from the final exam, the student will receive a Fail for the exam, which will be reported on the student's Transcript of Records. In the case of a withdrawal, students need to make sure that they remain registered for the minimum number of credits expected by their home university as this may impact financial aid conditions, etc.

Exams

Exam dates are communicated in the syllabus for the midterm and final, and cannot be re-scheduled if you have a conflicting appointment. If the dates of the final exams need to be moved for any reason, Cattolica International Office and the course instructor will promptly inform students in class and via e-mail of the new date. Unexcused absences from exams will result in a failing grade.

In cases of unforeseeable circumstances such as illness or injury on the day of the exam, the student must submit a medical certificate and communicate his/her absence to the instructor and the Cattolica International Office via email prior to the exam. If the student does not justify his/her absence through sufficient documentation and with adequate notice before the exam, the student will receive an automatic Fail. Furthermore, previously booked travel/flights on the date of the exam are not considered a valid justification to request a change of date, or a special exam arrangement. Plagiarism and the use of AI software like Chat GPT are against University regulations. Students found to have used such software will be penalized and/or assigned a fail.
